CLASSIFIED INDEX

An index which lists, under a heading descriptive of its medium of performance or special character, each work included in this issue. For each entry the name under which it will be found in the main section is given first, followed by the title.

INTRODUCTION

The classified index is designed to meet the needs of those who are searching for music for performance, or for music of national characteristics or special subject interest. The headings have been selected and the list constructed on the principle of using specific headings in so far as possible, e.g., Operas, not Dramatic Music-Operas. However, headings of broad scope with sub-divisions for specific types have been used when the headings are so closely related as otherwise to require numerous cross references or searching under widely separated headings, e. g., Chamber Music, Choral Music.

The words "music" or "songs and music" should be understood to follow most of the headings, e. g.,

Guitar [music]
Chile [songs and music]

The headings are arranged alphabetically, except that headings for piano ensemble follow those for a single piano. When sub-arrangement is necessary, it is sometimes in an alphabetical order of categories (see Juvenile music) and sometimes in a logical order (see Chamber music). Cross references are made from headings not used, and from sub-divisions of a general heading to the broad heading. Examples are:

Oratorios. See Choral music - Sacred choral works
String quartets. See Chamber music - Quartets - String instruments

Cross references are made from one heading to another when the second covers closely related material, e. g.,

Orchestra. See also String orchestra

Instructive material for particular instruments is under the name of each instrument, e. g., Violin instruction. Material which is predominantly textual, such as histories, biographies, and works on appreciation, theory, etc. will be found in a separate section at the end called Books and Pamphlets on Music.

The entries in the index constitute brief references to the main entries in the first section of this volume. Each entry consists of the name of the author, with forenames abbreviated, followed by the title-page title, or the filing title and the title-page title. Each entry in the index is represented by an entry under the composer in the main section, where any other editions registered in the period covered by this catalog will also be found.

The abbreviations used are: acc. - accompaniment; unacc. - unaccompanied; arr. - arranged.

The table which follows contains the headings used in the classified index. All cross references are also given in this table, and are not repeated in the index itself.

Choral music. Note: The term "Choral works" in the sub-headings below denotes works with orchestra accompaniment, whereas the term "Choruses" is used for works composed with piano accompaniment or unaccompanied.
In determining the number of voices, consideration is given to divisi passages. For example, when the title-page describes the work as being for two equal voices, the work will be listed with four-part choruses if the parts divide.
Under the sub-heading "Other combinations" are listed all works for ensembles with addition of one or more solo voices.

How's for a date.
I am thinking of you.
I believe in my heart.
I can't afford.
I can't deny.
I can't do without you.
I can't forget.
I can't forget you.
I can't get along without you.
I cry every night on my pillow.
I didn't know you knew.
I do not want a little love nest.
I don't care what you think of me.
I don't love you any more.
I don't want coffee.
I dreamt I went to heaven.
I fell in love with you.
I found my love.
I hope the one who knocks is you.
I kissed an angel.
I know you don't love me.
I made a wish tonight.
I never believed in love.
I never thought.
I pretend you love me.
I remember, you forget.
I should have told you.
I sit alone.
I want you to remember me.
I was only foolin'.
I wasn't impressed.
I will always love you.
I wonder why I love you so.
I won't ask for anything more.
I'd change my ways.
I'd give the sun fair warning.
I'd rather spoon by the moon.
If I haven't, it's a wonder, 'cause I do.
If I were you.
If the world stood still.
If you don't love me.
If you only loved me.
I'll always love you.

That's the general idea.
That's where I call home.
That's why I love you.
There's a broken heart somewhere tonight.
There's a girl that I love.
There's a new look in your eye, dear.
There's a rainbow in the sky.
There's an altar by my pillow.
There's no use to try.
There's something in the wind.
They're yours.
Thinking of you today.
This heart of mine.
This must be love.
Throw a kiss at our star.
Till forever.
Till you come back to me.
Time will tell.
Tipsy over you.
To rock the old cradle for me.
To talk to.
To think you loved me a little bit.

Why do I love you, honey.
Why don't my dreams come true.
Why is it? Oh! why is it.

Will you love me when I'm old.
Wishing.
With love to you, sweetheart.
With regrets, I'm not yours.
Without words.
Without you.
Won't you.
Worms for bait.
Yearning for love and home.
Yet there's a sadness.
You and moonbeams.
You are my love.
You are my treasure, my heart is with you.
You are the one.
You bring sunshine ev'ry mile to me.
You broke your vows, my darling.
You cannot take my dreams away.
You can't blame a gal.
You don't have to come from heaven to be an angel.
You don't have to steal my heart.
You don't love me.
You have a bit of Texas sunshine in your smile.
You, only you.
You said you would.
You stepped out of my dreams.
You think I won't.
You were an angel to me.
You were playing a game with me.
You'll always be near my heart.
You'll have to take me as I am.
You're forever in my dreams.
You're like a rose in a garden.
You're my reason.
You're robbin' me.
You're wrong.

PREFACE

THIS part of the Catalog of Copyright Entries contains a list of the domestic and foreign published music registered in the Copyright Office from July 1, 1949, through December 31, 1949. Included also are selected works registered as unpublished music and musical materials registered as books, pamphlets, dramas, and contributions to periodicals. Renewal registrations of music made in this period are listed in Part 14B of the Catalog.

Arrangement.—The main section contains entries giving complete information about each work, arranged alphabetically under the name of the person chiefly responsible for the work (composer, editor, arranger or compiler). Cross-references are made for the names of others who participate in the work.

The second section is a Title Index, in which each registration is listed under its title. The name under which the full entry is given in the main section follows the title.

The third section is a Classified Index in which each registration is listed under the medium of performance of the work, or, when the music is of a special type, under the subject heading for that group. For a fuller explanation, see the introduction to the index itself.

The fourth section is a Claimant Index in which each registration is listed under the name of the person or firm appearing in the application as the copyright claimant.

Entry.—The names by which the entries are alphabetized are given in the fullest known form, with cross-references from pseudonyms, nicknames, and forms contrary to normal usage in the particular language.

> MARAIS, JOSEF, pseud. See Pessac, Joseph.
> GRASSI, ANTONIO DE. See De Grassi, Antonio Joachim.

In the main entry, the name used in the heading is followed by the title and the names of all the authors. Name of publisher and place of publication are given when the publisher and claimant are not the same. When no publisher is given, it is to be understood that the claimant is the publisher.

Filing titles are supplied when necessary to bring together all excerpts from one work, or to file nondistinctive titles under the name of the musical form. Filing titles are placed in curves in front of the title as given on the work, for example:

> *(Roberta) The touch of your hand, from the musical play —Roberta.
> *(Concerto, violin, no. 2, A minor) Deuxième concerto pour —violon & orchestre.

The asterisk preceding the title indicates that Library of Congress printed cards are available for purchase. Orders for or inquiries regarding these cards should be addressed to the Card Division of the Library of Congress.

Copyright Data.—The statement giving the facts of copyright registration begins with the copyright symbol ©, which is followed by the name of the claimant, and for claimants other than individuals, the place of publication, the date of publication given on the application, and the registration number. If the claim is based on new matter, a brief description of the new matter is given between the date and the registration number.

Deposit of Copies.—In the case of every copyright entry listed in this part of the Catalog, the deposit of copies (or copy), as required by Title 17, U. S. C., secs. 12, 13 or 215 has been made. Foreign works for which two copies have been deposited, under sec. 215, are distinguished by a registration number, the first digit of which is a zero.

Authority.—The Catalog of Copyright Entries is published by authority of Title 17, U. S. C., secs. 210 and 211. Section 210 provides that the Catalog "shall be admitted in any court as prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein as regards any copyright registration."

Organization of the Catalog.—This issue of the Catalog is part of Volume 3 of the Third Series. The parts are numbered according to the alphabetical sequence of classes as listed in Title 17, U. S. C., sec. 5. Letters are added to the part numbers to indicate subdivisions.

The classes of material principally contained in each part are listed, together with their respective symbols, under the title of the part in the Table of Organization which faces the title page in this issue. In each case, the first letter of the symbol is that of the class under which registration is made; the second, if any, is a designation added by the Copyright Office for purposes of statistical analysis of registrations. The symbol R does not represent a class designated by the Copyright Act, but has been adopted by the Copyright Office to distinguish renewal copyright registrations. Some parts also contain registrations made under other symbols if the subject matter or type of material of these registrations is similar to that generally included in the part.

Orders.—The Office calls attention to the fact that orders for all parts of the Catalog should henceforward be sent directly to the Register of Copyrights, Library of Congress, Washington 25, D. C. Orders may be placed as follows: (1) as subscriptions to continue until further notice, or (2) as orders for individual issues. All orders should state clearly the title and inclusive dates of the issues wanted. For the convenience of subscribers, payment may be made either in advance (accompanying the order) or upon receipt of an invoice from the Copyright Office. Checks or money orders should be made payable to the Register of Copyrights.

The price of each individual number of the Catalog is given in the Table of Organization. The annual subscription rate for each part is twice the price of a single number, since all parts are issued semiannually. The complete Catalog of Copyright Entries for one year may be secured on a subscription basis for $20.

Inquiries.—The Copyright Office welcomes inquiries, suggestions, and comments on the content and organization of the Catalog. Please address communications of this nature to the Chief of the Cataloging Division, Copyright Office, Library of Congress, Washington 25, D. C.
